HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION

proposing an amendment to Article XVII of the Constitution of the State of Texas, to provide that the 63rd Legislature elected in November 1972, act as a constitutional convention to propose a revised Constitution to the voters of Texas, retaining the bill of rights of the present constitution.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article XVII, Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended by adding a new Section 2 to read as follows:

"Section 2. The 63rd Legislature of the State of Texas, elected in November 1972, shall be convened as a constitutional convention on the second Tuesday in January, 1974.

"When the Legislature convenes in regular session in January of 1973, it may appoint a Constitutional Commission, whole number and qualifications shall be determined by the Legislature. The Commission shall work with the Texas Legislative Council in studying the Constitution and recommending changes. It shall report to the members of the Legislature no later than November 1, 1973.

"A two-thirds vote of the delegates to the Constitutional Convention shall be required for the passage of each section and any alternate proposals on controversial issues."

"Per diem and expenses for legislators while serving as members of the Constitutional Convention shall be the same as the amount they receive while the Legislature is in session."

Section 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1972, at which election the ballots shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: "The constitutional amendment authorizing the Legislature to prepare a revised Constitution retaining the bill of rights of the present constitution for consideration by Texas voters."

COMMITTEE REPORT

Date April 11, 1967,

HON. G. F. (GUS) MUTSCHER

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Sir:

We, your Committee on Constitutional Amendments, to whom was referred HJR No. 61, have had the same under consideration and beg to report back with recommendation that it do pass, and be not printed.

Committee Substitute was recommended and is to be printed in lieu of the original bill.

The Bill was reported from Committee by the following vote:

Unanimous voice vote

Majority voice vote

Vote of _____ ayes and _____ nays.

John Traeger

Chairman.

(A "committee substitute" in the case of a bill is in the form of two suggested amendments, a new body and a new caption. Under the Rules a committee may authorize the printing of the "committee substitute" in lieu of the original bill. If the original caption is adequate, the "committee substitute" should be only a new body; and in such case the original caption should be printed along with the suggested new body.)

6 HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION

7 PROPOSING an amendment to Article XVII of the Constitution of 8 the State of Texas, to provide that the 63rd Legislature
9 elected in November 1972, act as a constitutional conven-
10 tion to propose a revised Constitution to the voters of 11 Texas, retaining the bill of rights of the present constitu-
12 tion.

13 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

14 Section 1. That Article XVII, Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended
15 by adding a new Section 2 to read as follows:

16 "Section 2. The 63rd Legislature of the State of Texas, elected in 17 November 1972, shall be convened as a constitutional convention on the second
18 Tuesday in January, 1974.

19 "When the Legislature convenes in regular session in January of 1973, it
20 may appoint a Constitutional Commission, whole number and qualifications 21 shall be determined by the Legislature. The Commission shall work with the 22 Texas Legislative Council in studying the Constitution and recommending 23 changes. It shall report to the members of the Legislature no later than 24 November 1, 1973.

25 "A two-thirds vote of the delegates to the Constitutional Convention shall be 26 required for the passage of each section and any alternate proposals on con-
27 troversial issues.

28 "Per diem and expenses for legislators while serving as members of the 29 Constitutional Convention shall be the same as the amount they receive while 30 the Legislature is in session."

31 Section 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a 32 vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first 33 Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1972, at which election the 34 ballots shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition:
35 "The constitutional amendment authorizing the Legislature to prepare a 36 revised Constitution retaining the bill of rights of the present constitution for 37 consideration by Texas voters."

COMMITTEE AMENDMENT NO. 1

Amend H. J. R. No. 61 by striking all below the resolving clause and substituting the following:

Section 1. That Article XVIII, Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended by adding a Section 2 to read as follows:

"Section 2. (a) When the legislature convenes in regular session in January, 1973, it shall provide by concurrent resolution for the establishment of a constitutional revision commission. The legislature shall appropriate money to provide an adequate staff, office space, equipment, and supplies for the commission.

"(b) The commission shall study the need for constitutional change and shall report its recommendations to the members of the legislature not later than November 1, 1973.

"(c) The members of the 63rd Legislature shall be convened as a constitutional convention at noon on the second Tuesday in January, 1974. The lieutenant governor shall preside until a chairman of the convention is elected. The convention shall elect other officers it deems necessary, adopt temporary and permanent rules, and publish a journal of its proceedings.

"(d) Members of the convention shall receive compensation, mileage, per diem as determined by a five member committee, to be composed of the Governor, Lt. Governor, Speaker of the House, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, and Chief Justice of the Court of Criminal Appeals. This shall not be held in conflict with Article XVI, Section 33 of the Texas Constitution. The convention may provide for the expenses of its members and for the employment of a staff for the convention, and for these purposes may by resolution appropriate money from the general revenue fund of the state treasury. Warrants shall be drawn pursuant to vouchers signed by the chairman or by a person authorized by him in writing to sign them.

"(e) The convention, by resolution adopted on the vote of at least two-thirds of its members, may submit for a vote of the qualified electors of this state a new constitution which may contain alternative articles or sections, or may submit revisions of the existing constitution which may contain alternative articles or sections. Each resolution shall specify the date of the election and the method of publicizing the proposals to be voted on. To be effective, each proposal must receive a majority of the votes cast on it at the election. To be adopted, each proposal must receive the favorable vote of the majority of those cast on the proposal. The conduct of the election, the canvassing of the votes, and the reporting of the returns shall be as provided for elections under Section 1 of this article.

"(f) The convention may be dissolved by resolution adopted on the vote of at least two-thirds of its members; but it is automatically dissolved at 11:59 p.m. on May 31, 1974, unless its duration is extended for a period not to exceed 60 days by resolution adopted on the vote of at least two-thirds of its members."

Section 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1972, at which election the ballots shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: "The constitutional amendment providing for a constitutional revision commission which precedes the convening of the members of the 63rd Legislature as a constitutional convention in January, 1974, for the purpose of submitting to the voters a new constitution or revisions of the existing state constitution."

5 Hon. G. F. (Gus) Mutscher, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

6 SIR: We, your Committee on Constitutional Amendments, to whom was re-7 ferred H. J. R. No. 61, have had the same under consideration and beg to 12

13 BILL ANALYSIS
14

15 Background:

16 The present Texas Constitution does not fulfill the needs of Texas
17 today. It is unwieldy, extremely complicated and filled with matters not 18 germane to a state constitution.

19
20 Purpose:

21 To provide that the 63rd Legislature act as a constitutional conven-
22 tion to propose a new Constitution.

23
24 Section by Section Analysis:

25 Section 1: When the legislature convenes in regular session in 26 January 1973, it shall provide for a constitutional revision commission
27 and shall appropriate money for staff, office space, equipment and supplies.

28
29 The commission shall report its recommendations not later than 30 November 1, 1973.

31
32 The members of the 63rd legislature shall be convened as a con-
33 stitutional convention in January 1974.

34
35 Members of the convention shall receive compensation as determined 36 by a five man committee. The convention may provide for the expenses of 37 its members by appropriating money from the general revenue fund of the 38 state treasury.

39
40 Two-thirds vote of the convention would be necessary to submit 41 a new state constitution to the qualified electorate of the state.

42
43 The convention is automatically dissolved by May 31, 1974 unless 44 its duration is extended for no more than 60 days by resolution adopted 45 by two-thirds of its members.

46
47 Section 2: Election clause.

AMENDMENT NO. _____

BY Peckham

Amend Committee Amendment No. 1 to H.J.R. No. 61 as follows:

(1) On the first line of Section 1, substitute "XVII,"
for "XVIII,".

(2) Strike quoted Subsection (e) in Section 1 and substitute
the following:

3
(e) The convention, by resolution adopted on the vote of at least two-thirds of its members, may submit for a vote of the qualified electors of this state a new constitution which may contain alternative articles or sections, or may submit revisions of the existing constitution which may contain alternative articles or sections. Each resolution shall specify the date of the election, the form of the ballots, and the method of publicizing the proposals to be voted on. To be adopted, each proposal must receive the favorable vote of the majority of those voting on the proposal. The conduct of the election, the canvassing of the votes, and the reporting of the returns shall be as provided for elections under Section 1 of this article.

(3) Add a sentence to quoted Subsection (c) in Section 1 to read as follows: "A person elected to fill a vacancy in the 63rd Legislature before dissolution of the convention becomes a member of the convention on taking office as a member of the legislature."
